LOOKING GOOD ON WOOD

JAMIE SAYS... "Investing in a few large platters and boards is incredibly important as it helps you create an exciting-looking table that everyone will want to sit around."

A ANTIPASTI PLATTER PEBBLE
By popular demand a space-saving, rounded version of our long, straight antipasti platter, (see item E). The pebble adds an extra level to your table to maximise space. Designed by Phil Longstaff for Jme. H23 x W35 x L47cm
100 528 NOC (1250points) £51

B ROLL OUT THE BARREL BOARD
French oak board made from a vintage wine barrel; use for cheese, chopping or as a trivet. Colours may vary due to containing wine in a previous life.
H2 x W19 x L37cm (approx.)
100 696 NAT (850points) £43.50

C LUNA LATTICE TRIVET, WOOD
A lovely cross-hatched design protects your table from hot pots and bowls. W27 x L27cm
100 697 NAT (480points) £21

D AMERICAN OAK TABLET BOARD
Hang your board on a hook by the hole at the top and keep your kitchen clutter-free. Designed by Phil Longstaff for Jme.
H2 x W17.5 x L52cm
100 775 NAT (570points) £28.50

HANDY HINT

Give your oak a feed of vegetable oil as soon as you unwrap it, then nourish it with a rub of oil every now and then. Wash in warm, soapy water (don't soak); rinse and dry straight away. Over time, oak will develop a lovely rustic look.

E ANTIPASTI PLATTER
Jamie Oliver thought of this platter idea for a friend's wedding. It maximises space and is ideal for serving food to share.
H29 x W16 x L100cm
100 017 NOC (1500points) £55
